INTRODUCTION

The Disabilities Law Program ("DLP") of Community Legal Aid Society, Inc. This document identifies the goals, priorities, and case acceptance standards of the DLP's Protection and Advocacy for individuals with Developmental Disabilities (PADD) advocacy program.

GENERAL STANDARDS AFFECTING LEVEL AND TYPE OF SERVICES OFFERED

Recognizing that the demand for assistance has historically outstripped available resources, the following factors will be considered in determining the level and type of services which will be offered to a group or individual:

- (1) potential impact on client;
- (2) merits of case (both factually and legally);
- (3) realistic alternate sources for referral and assistance [e.g. State agencies; other advocacy groups; Delaware Volunteer Legal Services ("DVLS"); private bar];
- (4) applicant's ability to self-advocate; and
- (5) potential impact on other constituents or systems.

All five of the above factors should be considered for each case being evaluated for services.
